welcome to
THE GROVE TOO

The Grove Too is a modern contemporary mixed-used community enclosing a picturesque courtyard garden. The prime location and harmonious courtyard garden design coupled with the highest achievable construction standards in the Caribbean makes The Grove Too a unique offering in the Cayman Islands.

Located a stone's throw away from the pristine sand of Seven Mile Beach and within walking distance of lively entertainment, luxury resorts and waterfront neighbourhoods, The Grove Too is in one of the most desirable locations in Grand Cayman.

the LOCATION

Situated within the most sought-after real estate in the Cayman Islands, The Grove Too is one of the last undeveloped commercial parcels along the Seven Mile Beach Corridor.

The Grove Too offers investment opportunities for Class A retail, commercial and upmarket residences at price points unlikely to be seen again along Seven Mile Beach.

commercial OWNERSHIP

The Grove Too offers a rare and exciting opportunity to purchase new, freehold Class A retail and commercial space along the famous and bustling corridor of Seven Mile Beach. In the centre of The Grove Too is a beautiful and tranquil courtyard garden, carefully designed by renowned Enea Garden Design.

The commercial units incorporate an energy-efficient design comprising maximum SEER air conditioning systems, cantilevered shading for storefronts and enhanced perimeter wall insulation. The storefronts have state-of-the-art, unobstructed glass curtain wall glazing systems designed to create a smooth and natural transition into the courtyard garden.

The courtyard garden boasts a colonnade of rainbow eucalyptus trees offering shade to informal seating areas, while a Zen bamboo water feature composes soft white noise. A sanctuary-like oasis, the courtyard garden is designed to invoke a deep sense of calm and inspire moments of reflection.

The clean and modern architectural style showcases a consumer-oriented design with wide covered walkways, open-air seating, large-scale breezeways, and direct elevator access to underground parking.
